

FREEMAN DRIVES IN ALL THE RUNS

Two Screaming Liners Through Center Net Three Tallies.

SMITH IS STEADY IN TIGHT PLACES

Calms Down After Bad Start. Milan's Triple in First Round Goes for Naught.

Yesterday was Jerry Freeman day at Detroit's baseball park. Charles Smith, pitched a good game and the players gave a repetition of the previous day's good work in the field, but the three runs credited to the Nationals were driven in by a brace of Freeman's lusty smashes.

In the fourth and in the sixth with two out Freeman knocked a screaming liner to center, bringing in two runs with the first and another with the second swing.

Again Detroit started out like a winner. In the first McIntyre singled to right and Schaefer lined out a hit to deep left. Crawford forced Schaefer, but Cobb's long fly tailed McIntyre, while Crawford advanced to second. Rossman drew a pass but McBride came to the rescue and threw out Coughlin.

After his bad start Smith was effective except in the fourth when Cobb opened with a double and Rossman's single to center scored the Georgian. Schmidt's line drive went straight into the hands of McBride for a double play. Pass Up Best Chances.

The Nationals overtook their best chance to tally in the first and then scored with the odds against them in the fourth. Milan set things going in the opener by a triple but Donovan fanned Shipke and Ganley and Unglaub were easy outs.

In the fourth Shipke got a base on balls, Ganley singled and Unglaub sacrificed. Freeman's single to center tallied the two runners, but Jerry died stealing and Pickering flied out.

With one down in the sixth Shipke hit safely and Ganley flied to Cobb. Shipke was called safe when he tried to steal second, although the decision brought forth some stinging remarks from the opposition. Unglaub drew a pass and Freeman sent another via the same route to center, scoring Shipke. Pickering fouled.

Steady in Face of Danger.

Smith was notably steady with men on bases. In the fifth McIntyre hit and stole with two down and Rossman did the same in the sixth with two out. In the eighth Crawford singled. All were stranded. Danger arose in the ninth. Rossman singled and Winter was put in to run. Jones, sent in to bat for Coughlin, forced Winter and stole second. Schmidt flied to Ganley, and Thomas went to the bat for Downs. He lined one past. Ganley, which O'Loughlin ruled was a foul and his next attempt fell into the hands of Shipke, who made a circus stop and barely caught him.

The complete reversal in fielding form of the Nationals is one of the anomalies of baseball. The Detroit sport writers declare. The games for the past two days have not only been free from errors but have been marked by stunts of unusual brilliancy.

Blanche H. Captures Motorboat Event on Marshall Hall Course.

The motorboat race held under the auspices of Kismet Council, Royal Arcanum, yesterday afternoon, resulted in a victory by the Blanche H., owned by H. H. and I. H. Hollander, of this city. Promptly at 2:30 o'clock the boats were gotten under way by Starter A. A. Wright, assisted by E. Mallay. In a perfect line the boats crossed the tape, and this was continued for some distance down the river until the Blanche H. and "23," owned by W. Cumberland, forged ahead. It was a battle between the two until Jones' point was passed. From there to Marshall Hall, the Blanche H. forged ahead and reached the finishing line three-quarters of a mile in front. The silver cup awarded by Kismet Council was presented to the owners at Marshall Hall in the evening. The winning launch is equipped with an eight-horsepower Standard engine.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR C. W. U. ELEVEN

Large Number of Candidates Promise Successful Season for Hatcherite Squad.

Candidates in large numbers are promised for the George Washington football squad this fall.

At a recent gathering of gridiron supporters plans were discussed for the coming season, and the opinion seems to be unanimous that the prospects are brighter than for years. With the nucleus of a good team among the tried men and an abundance of new material on tap, Graduate Manager Wilson can see nothing to it but a most successful year.

Graduate Manager Wilson reported that the sweaters were on hand for distribution to those men who were awarded a "W" or a monogram last year.

Among those present at the meeting, besides Graduate Manager Wilson, were Coach Nickerson, and Messrs. White, Crafts, Holmes, O'Neal, Witten, Baker, Maxey, Edwards, Hart, Harrison, and Haas.

S.S.S. CURES MALARIA

Malaria is due to impurities in the blood which destroy the rich, healthful qualities of the circulation, and reduce it to a weak, watery fluid. The body is then deprived of its necessary nourishment and strength, and is unable to resist the countless disorders that assail it, and the general system suffers in consequence. The appetite fails, digestion is weakened, chills and slight fever are frequent, while the sufferer loses energy and ambition. Boils, skin eruptions, and some times sores and ulcers follow when the blood becomes deeply polluted with the malarial germs. Both a tonic and blood purifier are needed to cure Malaria, and S. S. S. is best fitted for this work. It is the most perfect of all blood purifiers and at the same time an invigorating, healthful tonic. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation, and removes every trace of impurity or poison, and gives to the blood the health-sustaining qualities it needs. It cures Malaria thoroughly and permanently because it removes from the blood the germs and poisons which produce the disease, and while doing this tones up and strengthens every part of the system. Book with information about Malaria and any medical advice furnished free to all who write.

WANT CANDIDATES TO HONOR ATHLETES

Presidential Nominees Invited to Reception for Olympians.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Every Presidential candidate has been invited to receive the American Olympic athletes on August 23.

The executive committee is desirous of making the event one of the most momentous in the history of the city of New York, and the plans embrace a national recognition as well as a city welcome. It is planned to have every candidate aid in the reception, and yesterday special invitations were sent to President Roosevelt, Governor Hughes, Lieutenant Governor Chandler, William H. Taft, the Republican nominee; William Jennings Bryan, the Democratic candidate; Thomas Watson, Eugene V. Debs, Thomas L. Watson, the Independence League candidate; and August Gillhaus, the Socialist Labor Party aspirant for the office.

President Roosevelt received an invitation yesterday afternoon by special messenger along with the notification of his appointment as honorary chairman of the reception committee of 1,000.

Governor Hughes has been named on the reception committee, with Lieutenant Governor Chandler and all the State officials. Governor Hughes is very much interested in the reception, and is expected to be present at the ceremony on Saturday, August 23. Acting Mayor McGowan has written the governor requesting him to issue an order for the national guard to take part in the parade.

Indians Plan Welcome For F. Mount Pleasant

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Aug. 12.—The Tuscarora Indians will, on his return, tender a monster reception to Mount Pleasant, the famous Carlisle Indian athlete who participated in the Olympic games with the American team and who won from the field in the broad jump at Paris last week.

Mount Pleasant is a product of the Lewistown reservation near this city, and his father is one of the chiefs. All the Indian athletes of this vicinity, and there are many of them on the several nearby reservations, will be there to perform in the games. Carlisle himself will have several athletes there also.

Arrangements have been made to have Mount Pleasant give an exhibition broad jump.

WORKING ON TRACK FOR MOTOR RACES

Entries Coming in for Auto Meet Over Benning Course Next Monday.

Judging from the number of entrants already landed for the automobile races next Monday at Benning track, in connection with the barbecue and ball of the Windthorst Club, the events will be marked by close competition by representative cars.

The fact that the event is an unsanctioned one and may be entered without fear of trouble with the A. A. A. is a big inducement. Permission was obtained to hold the meet without a sanction from Secretary Elliott of the association on condition that no entry fees be charged. This places the entrant under no expense except the actual cost of running his car around the track.

While a number of auto firms have entered machines, a still greater number of private owners are expected to compete.

Work was begun this morning on the track, and the course will be in race condition by the date of the races. The rough places on the straight stretches which interfered with the running of the program at a recent auto meet will be smoothed down, and every effort will be made to make conditions favorable for fast time.

The entries close on Saturday evening with George A. Deatel, of The Washington Times, and blanks should be mailed so as to reach this office before that date.

Percentages Show Washington Has Not Done Badly After All

Still Has Chance to Finish in .400—Thanks Due Johnson for Double Umpire System—Gans Not in Fight Pictures Here.

By THOMAS S. RICE.

The man who tries to follow the Washington ball team's in and out performances, much less predict what it will do in the future, will soon have the people who think it wrong to tell fairy stories to children.

Here we go now and take two out of four games from Detroit, a team which has had Cantillon's men so far faded that they could not be seen with a telescope, all of which comes almost right on top of taking two out of four from Chicago, another stumbling block, while sandwiched in between the Chicago and Detroit experiences came the horrible exhibition of Nationals fumbled when they lost three out of four to Cleveland, a team which has been sinfully easy for them in this city. Besides all this, Washington started the present Western trip by winning one game out of four in St. Louis, and that sixteen innings, although just a short time before the Browns have dropped three out of five in the Capital and would have lost four had it not been for a weird juggling of baseball luck.

The 400 Not So Bad.

So far, then, Washington won six games and lost ten in this Western trip, for a percentage of .375 on the road. Let us remark right here that this is not bad going, nor will it be the worst ever heard of if Detroit takes the game today and forces Washington to come home with a road average of .353.

As we have stated before, the Washington ball team will be doing pretty well to finish the season with a percentage of .400 in the won and lost reckonings. Don't forget that the .400 will be seventy-five points better than the team made last year and four points more than the percentage with which Boston finished the 1937 season in seven places.

Boston, which is also playing an almost entirely new team this year will finish with a much better average than it had last year, and there may be complaints that as between the Washington team of two years' building and the Boston team of one year's development, Washington should have that. All which graces the Boston club this morning. Perhaps it should, but the children only of relying upon people who would not do so should not do so was never better illustrated than when Washington took the second game from Boston yesterday and split even with the Sox.

Improvement Equals Boston's.

Washington, coming from the rear, has been unfortunately placed. As was pointed out in the spring, both Boston and St. Louis, which might have been expected to show only a reasonable amount of improvement, have, in fact, become surprisingly strong. Boston is today, with .41, exactly seventy-five points better off than it was when its final hand went out in October. Washington today, with its .39, is exactly sixty-five points better off than it was at the conclusion of the 1936 schedule.

Thus, there is only about a game and a half between Washington and Boston in the matter of bettering themselves. St. Louis, which was expected to be a lot better in the second division, slung a lot of cast-offs traded from New York, has bulged out, and is now a serious pennant contender. This had the effect of lifting a supposedly weak team beyond Washington's reach, and of forcing down into the second division to worry and hassle the clubs there, the Athletics, by no means a poor ball club, but one which has been brought to its present lowly estate not so much because of its own weakness, but because of the unexpected brace by St. Louis.

Hope for Home Series.

Thus, the pickings of the second division have been harder for Washington than we had any right to anticipate, but when you look at it in the light of the results accomplished, Cantillon's men have not done so badly, even if they have not done as well as the fans

GLOOMY REPORTS FROM JOE GANS

Chances Growing Slim for Victory in Return Battle With Nelson.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12. Several sports who returned yesterday from Harbin Springs, where Joe Gans has been staying since his defeat by Bat Nelson, give gloomy reports of the champion's condition, and the reports are borne out by photographs.

They say the excessively hot weather in Lake county has had a bad effect on Gans. He is drawn, with the face of an old man. Gans picked up weight at first, when the weather was good, but lately, since the mercury has run far above the hundred mark, Gans has lost flesh until now he only weighs 134 pounds. He goes out horseback riding and driving, but open air exercise does not seem to make him rugged. He looks tired, and lately he has lost his appetite.

Joe attributes this to the heat and says he will be all right when he gets to the sea coast next week. He is optimistic and he says he feels well, but his looks belie him, and his step lacks its old vigor. If he gets into shape for his return fight with Nelson it will be a miracle, the sports say.
